Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose these matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters:

- that diminish the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract of insurance in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Basis of Cover – Occurrence/Claims made

The cover provided under section 6 of the policy is in respect of occurrences during the period of insurance.

The cover provided under sections 7, 8 and 9 of the policy operates on a 'claims made' basis, which means you are covered for:

- claims made against you and notified to us during the period of cover, provided you were not aware at any time prior to the commencement of such period of any circumstances which could lead to a claim being made against you; and
- circumstances you first became aware of during the period of insurance which may lead to future claims, provided you notify us during such period of those circumstances.

The cover provided under sections 7, 8 and 9 is in respect of claims arising out of acts, errors, omissions or conduct that occurred after the retroactive date shown in the certificate of insurance. After expiry of the policy, no new claim can be made or circumstance notified under the policy even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the period of insurance, except where allowed by law.

Please ensure you have read the Disability Services insurance product disclosure statement and policy wording and the important notices in this application to assist your understanding.

If you require any assistance, please contact your insurance broker or your local Ansvar Insurance office.

Waiver of rights

The policy has a provision that limits or reduces our liability if you agree not to sue any liable party, or if you enter into any arrangement or compromise with such party, or waive or prejudice our rights of recovery as a result of any claim which would normally be covered under the policy.

Code of Practice and Privacy Act

As a signatory to the General Insurance Code of Practice we are committed to raising standards of service to our customers. This voluntary code sets out the minimum standards we will uphold in the services we provide to you.

The Privacy Act sets out how we are to collect, use, disclose and protect your personal information. It also describes the circumstances for you to access and, if necessary, correct your personal information.

You may access your personal information by contacting any of our offices. The information we collect is used to assist us to provide you with our general insurance products and to manage our relationship with you.

At times we rely on third party suppliers (agents, legal advisers, other insurance companies, assessors, investigators, loss adjusters, market research and mail houses) to perform specialised activities for us. Your personal information may be provided to them so that they can carry out their agreed activities.

They are bound by confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements and are prohibited from using the information for any other purpose. These service providers are aware of their obligations under the Privacy Act and the General Insurance Code of Practice.

If you do not wish to provide us with your personal information, we will not be able to supply our products to you.
